- 4064 Brand's Popular Antiquities. The well-known and valuable Work, entitled "Popular Antiquities," enlarged on a very extended plan, being the labour of thirty years, and compressed in five volumes, the last Edition, interleaved with Writing-paper, in two volumes; and three volumes in thick quarto size, entirely of new and original Matter, in MS. in the neat and elegant Hand of Mr. Brand, and was ready to print, when the world was deprived of one of the most learned and valuable members of Society. The last Edition was published in 1777, has been out of print for many years, and a new edition by the public very much called for; the opportunity Mr. Brand had, as Secretary to the Antiquarian Society, many Members of that learned Body having contributed, independent of his unwearied researches during the best years of his life, renders this one of the most interesting works; it was left by Mr. Brand in such a complete state, that the purchaser will have little or nothing to do but to go to press the moment he is in possession of this most invaluable treasure
